May 2nd, showcasing movies with a student panel.

R. Warren-Marlatt mentioned this is excellent and exciting for undocumented students.

SB13 to be brought to the table for undocumented students affairs support on the campuses.

2019 Building Diversity Summit – Kristina Hannon.

State Chancellor's Office and Academic Senate (statewide) hosted the IEPI-CCCCO Diversity Summit. The goal was to identify student success.

Student equity gaps – the number of students of color has grown while the number of faculty of color hired remained the same.

K Hannon reported the demographics for SBCCD, CHC, and SBVC. K. Hannon reported our numbers are a bit better than state average.

SBCCD Next Steps – Multiple Methods form will be finalized and approved on May 4th and sent to State Chancellor.

Professional Development and trainings on diversity have been successful and they continue to grow to retain faculty/staff.

Onboarding process is expected fall 2019.

Screening committee handbook for speakers.

Adjunct pools/internship with local k-12 administrators and certificated staff.

Actively taking the District from compliance to competent.

R. Warren-Marlatt commented there are many boundaries the adjunct instructors have to cross to get into k-12.

R. Warren-Marlatt recommended have a district conversation regarding equity.

K. Hannon reported every college is having the same issues. Seems everyone was hungry for the information. A. Rodriguez has offered to help with marketing. K. Hannon commented they are missing the mark in where they are recruiting. Any opportunities that will allow SBCCD to give information of hiring, R. Warren-Marlatt reported Trustee Houston might be a good connection. M. Lopez reported she went to a conference last month in Long Beach, and many attendees were speaking about SBCCD's College Promise. R. Warren-Marlatt reported on the SBCCD's "Dreamers" conference. The purpose is to give learning opportunities. The HSI committee has agreed to support. R. Warren-Marlatt will reach out to C. Rodriguez and include A. Rodriguez and K. Hannon to start this planning process. Trustee Reyes reported he just returned from Washington, D.C. HACU is pushing now for k-12 and higher education. Trustee Reyes commented if RCC and SBCCD collaborate we are more likely to receive funding. MAY AGENDA B.
